Biography

Milka Lucia Blazevic, born Papic, was born on October 9, 1886, in Senj, Općina Senj, Lika-Senj County, Croatia ^[1]. She was the daughter of Josip Anton Papić, who was born on November 1, 1857, in Senj ^[1], and Antonija Papić, born Prpic, whose birth took place on May 12, 1859, in Krivi Put 136, Senj, then part of Austria-Hungary ^[1]. Milka was baptized in her hometown of Senj ^[1].

She grew up with seven siblings: Marija (born August 11, 1885) ^[1], Ana (born May 25, 1888) ^[1], Josip (born March 18, 1890) ^[1], Bozica Tonka (born December 9, 1891) ^[1], Franka (born January 20, 1895) ^[1], Sulka (born February 7, 1895) ^[1], and Stanko (born in 1902 and died in 1903) ^[1].

Milka's first marriage was to Zvonimir Matei Vukelić, who was born on January 13, 1883, in Senj. They married on November 4, 1907, in Senj, and had two children: Miroslava Mica/Nana (born in 1907) and Josip (born in 1913) ^[1]. After Zvonimir's death in 1915 ^[1], Milka remarried to Ljubomir Blažević on December 8, 1920, in Senj. Ljubomir was born on March 1, 1892, in Crikvenica, Općina Crikvenica, Primorje-Gorski Kotar County, Croatia. Together, they had seven more children: Leo (born in 1920), Karmela Karmen (born June 30, 1922), Oto (born in 1923), Hedviga (born August 3, 1926), Ljubomir (born in 1929), Mario (born in 1933), and Anton ^[1].

Milka worked as a kapovica during her life ^[1]. She passed away on September 7, 1971, at the age of 84 in her birthplace of Senj ^[1].
